

DAILY BRIEF
27 MAY 1967

1. Arab States -
Israel
(As of 5:45 AM EDT)

No challenge to the blockade appears likely today and there have been no new military developments overnight.

A tanker is due at Eilat about 31 May, but may be diverted as was a sister ship yesterday. A cargo vessel may enter the Gulf on 30 or 31 May.

U Thant may propose that all nations temporarily hold up strategic cargoes (including oil) normally shipped through the Gulf.

EO 12958 3.4(b)(1)>25Yrs
(T)

[REDACTED] a two-week hiatus on strategic shipping was one of two proposals made by the UN Secretary General during his visit to Cairo. The second proposition was that he send a permanent and personal representative to the Middle East. The Egyptians bought both proposals, [REDACTED]

Moscow is still dodging a definitive position on the blockade.

EO 12958 3.4(b)(1)>25Yrs
(T)

[REDACTED] remarked that the Arabs will have a difficult time defending the blockade from the international point of view.

EO 12958 3.4(b)(1)>25Yrs
(T)

[REDACTED]

APPROVED FOR RELEASE
DATE: MAY 2000

EO 12958 3.4(b)(1)>25Yrs
(C)

~~TOP SECRET~~

[REDACTED]